to have any rights or interests in or to the said child/children. You are hereby notified that a Dependency Petition has been filed in the above-entitled court, and a hearing on such petition will be held on the 27th day of February, 1990, in the Clark County Juvenile Court, at 500 West Eleventh Street, Vancouver, Washington, at 1:30 p.m., when and where all persons interested may appear and show cause why the court should not enter such orders as may be in the best interest of said child. This petition begins a process which, if proved by the state, will result in establishing the person named in the petition as the guardian of said child. If this petition is proved by the state, the Juvenile Court shall have the power to determine the appropriate frequency of visitation between the parents and the child and shall determine the need for any continued involvement of the supervising agency.

You have the right to talk to an attorney if you desire and if you cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed for you. An attorney can look at the social and legal files in your case, talk to the caseworker, tell you about the law, help you understand your rights, and help you at trial.

If your child/children is/are in custody and placed in shelter care, you have the right to a shelter care hearing to be heard within 72 hours of your request.
